

ICAEW PATHWAY BY TUNDE WEY

ICAN UK and District Society organised a Video Conference session in conjunction with ICAEW on Friday 17th of April 2020 regarding the ICAEW Pathway programme designed to facilitate the conversion of members of CCAB affiliated professional institutions to ICAEW. The session was attended by over 50 ICAN UK Members.

Highlight of the session are below:

- Benefits of joining ICAEW were highlighted including – Career support and development; Information services and technical advice; member groups and networking and global reach and influence.
- Details of the ICAEW pathway were also provided and are detailed below:
 - The ICAEW Pathway occurs twice a year:
 - June (entry open 18th of June and closes 30th July with result release 22nd October)
 - November – closing end of November
 - There is a fee of £300
 - Criteria include: Full membership of an Accountancy Professional body (e.g. ICAN), up to five years full membership, membership gained through normal education and training route, CPD compliant, good disciplinary record and sponsor support.
 - Members are expected to obtain a letter from their home body indicating they are of good standing and are up to date on MCPE. Letter must also be within 30 days from the point they are applying to entry date.
 - There are 5 questions to answer, each of which are in 2 parts. Applicants can be scored maximum of 10 points for each question part and a maximum of 20 points for each of 4 questions, while question 5 attracts 10 points and good presentation attracts 10 points.

GOVERNMENT SUPPORT FOR BUSINESSES AND WORKERS

The government knows that all these measures have a huge impact on businesses, households and people across the country and has taken action to protect lives and incomes.

For businesses:

- more than £330 billion is being made available in loans and guarantees
- another £20 billion is being given to businesses through tax relief and cash grants
- HMRC is deferring VAT payments for the next quarter

For workers and families:

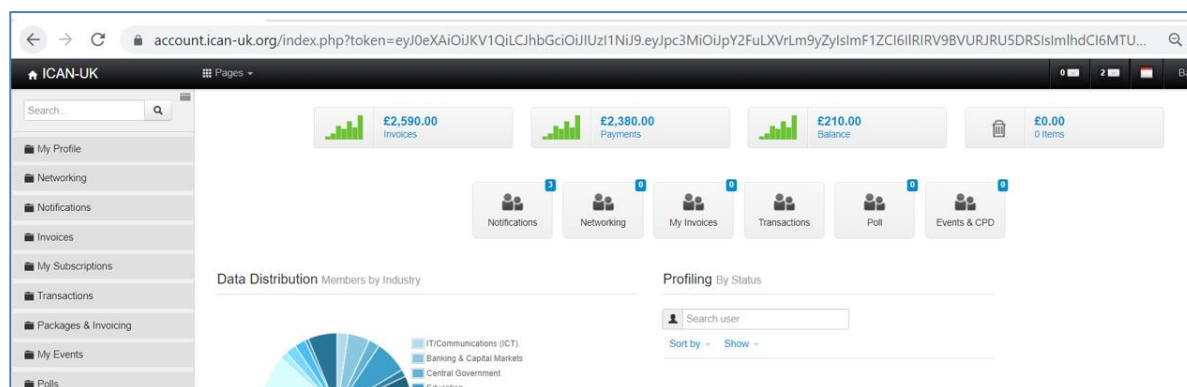

- the Coronavirus Job Retention Scheme means employees can receive 80% of their wages up to a maximum of £2,500 per month
- the Coronavirus Self Employment Income Support Scheme will provide a grant to most self-employed individuals or partnerships, worth 80% of their profits up to a cap of £2,500 per month
- extra support for the unemployed and those on low incomes through Universal Credit and Tax Credits, worth up to £1,040
- nearly £1 billion of additional support for renters
- mortgage holidays of three months for anyone in difficulty due to coronavirus, including owners of buy to let properties

This is just some of the support available for businesses and workers. Further information is available at gov.uk/coronavirus.
